A P P L Y	Waiting can be hard. We wait for news. Will it be good or bad? We arrive on time and still wait for those appointments. This time of year, we wait in longer than usual lines in many stores. Our Gospel reading directs us to prepare ourselves (be alert and pray) as we wait for Jesus to come. As we enter this season of Advent, it might help for us to look for the many ways Jesus is already at work all around us, as we ready our hearts once again to welcome a Savior. Think of a time when having a sense of hope was especially helpful as you waited for something?
P R A Y E R	Dear God-Help us to have patience as we wait for the coming of your Son, Jesus. Give us hope-filled minds and hearts and a sense of peace in these darker days. We know and can trust that soon enough your light will come. Amen.
