A P P L Y	The holiday season has always been one of sharing. On this second Sunday in Advent, we again encounter John the Baptist, who in our Gospel reading, urges people of the day not only to repent, but to show that God is an active part of their lives by giving of themselves. In loving and caring for others we reveal our true selves and reflect the love of God into an often dark world. Consider the ways you find throughout the holidays to give and share with others? How might you commit to doing even more, not only at Christmas, but throughout the year?
P R A Y E R	Loving God- You have blessed us, your children, with so much As we wait and hope this Advent season may our hearts be guided to share. Help us each day to proclaim the Good News of Jesus's presence in the world through all we say and do. Amen.
