A P P L Y	As Jesus continues his journey in Jerusalem, he is warned by the Pharisees of the danger that lies ahead for him there. Jesus tells them he has no intention of abandoning his ministry and mission. Jerusalem and its people have never stuck with God’s desire for their lives for very long. Yet Jesus never stops loving them continuing to hold out hope that one day they will finally take his words to heart, and live in community together, sheltered under the wings of God’s love. Think of a time the community around you provided you a helpful warning or maybe even supported and protected you from harm?
P R A Y E R	Dear God-Thank you for your unrelenting faithfulness. Help us too to be as persistent in sharing of your love in our lives, with the people and places around us. In your name we pray. Amen.,
