A P P L Y	In this week's Gospel Jesus shares one of his most well-known parables, that of the father and his two sons. One son who leaves home to see what the world holds and the other who stays to live with and work for his father. While the first son, for a time anyway, lives wild and carefree, eventually his money runs out, his friends leave him and he has no choice, but to return home. Expecting to apologize for his many bad decisions, instead his father joyfully welcomes him back, not as a servant like he thought he would, but as his son, who was lost, but has now been found. Which one of the characters in this parable do you most closely identify with and why?
P R A Y E R	Loving God- Thank you for the width and breadth of your love for us. No matter how far we might try to stray from that love, we know it will always be a place we can call home. Amen.
